EXPO™

Does weak security have your office on the brink of a meltdown?

Find out at a Free Staples Business Expo Security Seminar. Join industry leading experts from Microsoft, Hewlett Packard, Intel, Linksys, a division of Cisco Systems, and Symantec to find out exactly what it takes to make a business secure from potentially crippling threats.

Each of our seminars will include a panel discussion with leading technology experts and hands on demonstrations highlighting the many critical security issues that face your growing business. We'll help you determine what you need to ensure that your system is not vulnerable to viruses, worms, spyware and email spammers.

This is an important event your business can't afford to miss.
